

SCA – The National Youth Conservation Organization

Who We Are

SCA is the national leader in youth service and stewardship. Since 1957, we've put more than 75,000 young people to work in America's parks and public lands.

Our Members

- ✦ Youth and Young Adults age 15-25+
- ✦ 7,655 volunteers placed annually
- ✦ 7 in 10 alumni are in sustainable careers or studies
- ✦ Nearly 1 in 2 self-identify as a person of color

Our Partners

- ✦ 600+ Project Sites Nationwide
- ✦ National, State and Local Parklands
- ✦ 700+ Colleges and Universities
- ✦ Leading Corporations, Foundations and other non-profit organizations

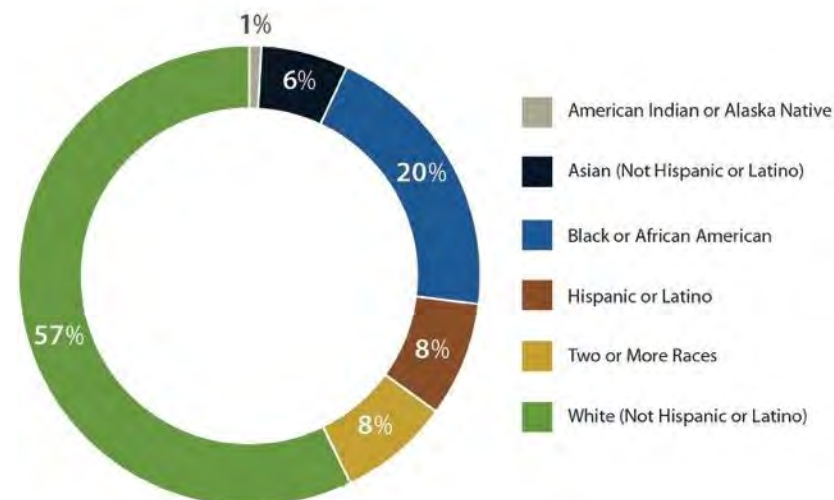

SCA – National Reach and Scope

SCA's REACH BY THE NUMBERS

- ✦ 160,000 young people reached by SCA recruiters each year
- ✦ 20,500 annual applicants to SCA
- ✦ 788 colleges and universities place students and alumni in SCA's young adult programs
- ✦ Offices and programs in 13 key cities across the nation
- ✦ Members placed in all 50 states

RACE AND ETHNICITY:

SCA has a strong commitment to changing the face of conservation leadership in the United States.

Historical & Cultural Restoration

Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area

✦ Project overview:

- Restore and preserve cultural and natural resources in and around the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area.

✦ Work breakdown:

- Restore buildings and grounds (70%)
- Collect data related to restoration and preservation (10%)
- Provide public outreach and education (15%)
- Office work, community building (5%)

✦ Initial work focused on stabilizing and restoring Camp Ken-Etiwa-Pec (KEP)

- Window/door repair and replacement
- Framing, interior and exterior painting
- Wall sheathing (paneling and drywall)
- Masonry and roof repair

